Mission: To stimulate appreciation for and celebrate the heritage of embroidery by advancing the highest standards of excellence in its practice through education, exhibition, preservation, collection, and research.

ASSISTANT REGION DIRECTOR NOTES

Elizabeth Little

It's hard to believe November is here already and gone. As much as I hate to admit it, my parents were right again. When I was younger they always told me, the older you become, the quicker the years pass. 2010 certainly has flown for me. Some days I wish it would slow down again. It was wonderful to visit with everyone in Rock Hill in October. I was certainly inspired by the wide variety of projects in Studio Time. The baskets from Cathie's class were all creative. Our chapter is looking forward to trying them next year. Michael's class was also inspiring. His variety of color schemes appeals to a wide variety of tastes. This one was no exception. We're already looking forward to Stitchin' on the Ridge 2011. The teachers and projects were revealed in Rock Hill. Several of the classes created quite a buzz. I can hardly wait to see what everyone chooses. Studio time will also be available. Brochures will be available after January 1, 2011.

For those not in Rock Hill, I'm pleased to announce the 2011 stitchers' exhibit will be EGA petite projects. You're limited to three per stitcher. So dig out those completed projects and finish them for display at Ridgecrest.

I wish all of you a very happy holiday season. May your needles be quick and sure so all the gifts will be completed in time.

Elizabeth

Calling all CAROLINAS' REGION CHAPTERS----Aiken Stitchin' Bells to Tryon, and all chapters in between! Help make the regions donation the National EGA seminar 2011, Flamingo Fandango, spectacular!!!!!! We have decided to make a patchwork jacket and matching project bag, as the key elements of our donation. Each chapter in the region is being asked to donate two to four "fat quarters" of material, for this project. Colors: pink (flamingo), green (palm tree), ecru (sand). Prints: flamingos, palm trees, flip-flops, sunglasses, and prints that remind one of Naples, FL., the beach, ocean, sun, sand, etc. Mail the fat quarters or a ten dollar donation for the purchase of materials, a.s.a.p., no later than February 15th, 2011 to: Sue Osterberg, 611 East Park Place, Hendersonville, NC, 28791

We have also been given a large pink and beige striped canvas beach tote which needs to be filled with tantalizing items!

SUGGESTIONS:

$10-$25 gift cards to: AC Moore, Michaels, Hobby Lobby, Starbucks, Dunkin Donuts, Bath and Body Works etc.

pink beaded items

needle work tools

pink beach towels

sunglasses

items with flamingos, palm trees, flip-flops, etc

We are not accepting charts, fibers or books.

These items can be brought to 2011 Stitchin' On The Ridge in June or mailed to Sue at the above address. Any questions feel free to contact me by e-mail at osterbed@bellsouth.net. Help make the Carolinas' Region the highlight of the seminar!

Community Outreach

Hello Fellow Stitchers,

It is hard to believe 2010 is almost at an end. Carolina EGA members have been busy in their communities. The Laurel Chapter continues to make blankets for Project Linus and also participated in making bookmarks for the Literacy Bookmark drive of EGA. Down in Myrtle Beach the stitchers are still supporting women at the Ohio Reformatory for Women with supplies to stitch. The Charlotte Chapter had a display at their local library. Kissing Pillows for our troops are being stitched by members of the Blue Ridge Chapter. In Augusta the chapter supports a local Neonatal unit with gowns, blankets and Bereavement Bags. The Augusta Chapter also had an exhibit at a local library and taught classes for several library patrons. Aiken Stitchin' Belles continue to make Cuddle Buddies for a local children's shelter and also made bookmarks for the EGA Literacy Bookmark effort.

Be sure and check out the December Inside EGA as Carolina Regions Outreach efforts are featured. Remember when you talk about stitching or stitch at the doctor's office you are participating in outreach.

Have Happy Holidays,
Janine Bangs

EGA WEBSITE - MEMBERS ONLY LOGIN

Are your chapter members having trouble logging on to the "Members Only" area of the EGA website? Here's an idea that might help. Print out the login information on 2"x4" address labels. Affix the labels to brightly colored 3"x5" index cards. Give a card to your members to keep handy by their computers. Contact Sydney Mace at sydneymace@yahoo.com to obtain the label template.
